Isaiah Warren Orgill

OCT 23, 2006 - JUN 19, 2024

Isaiah Warren Orgill also known as Zay-Boy was born to Iley Orgill and Dennis Maxey. Isaiah was the second child, but first son to Iley. As a child Isaiah attended Marshall Elementary, Webster Middle School, and Union High School. Although being diagnosed at the age of 4 with autism, Isaiah did not let this stop him from wanting and striving for inclusion. He was known best in Union school hallways for his love of waving at students during passing period, especially waving at the girls. He would have graduated class of 2025. In his leisure time, Isaiah enjoyed Thomas the train, movies, playing games, dancing, and participating in various school activities that would catch his eye when passing in the hallways. Isaiah is preceded in death by his dad Dennis Maxey. Isaiah leaves to cherish his memory: his mother Iley Orgill, sister Mariah Orgill and Kenadie Kidd, grandmothers Irene Simon and Cathy Maxey, niece Briley Orgill, nephew Karter Barnette, Aunt Deena, extended family and friends, and all of the Union school staff and students.

Our family truly misses you, your smile and laughter would light up a room. You are missed but never forgotten. Our family truly loves you and are glad to have had you in our lives even if it was a short period of time.

I have two favorite memories. One was when I would run down to lunch everyday to ask him how his day went and give him his daily fist bump! The Second is when I took him to the multi cultural fair to look at the cool games and Knick-knacks they had :)
