Marty Peralta

MAY 18, 1970 - JUL 10, 2024

Marty Ray Peralta, aged 54, passed away on July 10, 2024, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Born to Louis Garcia Peralta and Janice (Gilbert) Peralta on May 18, 1970, in Athens, Greece, Marty's life was a rich tapestry of love, laughter, and dedication. Marty's journey led him from the scenic vistas of Arkansas to the heart of Melissa, the high school sweetheart who became his lifelong partner. Their love story, which began on December 28, 1991, blossomed into over 33 years of marriage filled with joy, growth, and the creation of a beautiful family with their children, Olivia and Mason.

A man who held his family above all else, Marty was the epitome of a devoted husband, a nurturing father, and a loyal friend. His remarkable sense of humor was a source of comfort and joy, bringing smiles to all who knew him.

Professionally, Marty was a respected IT project manager, known for his intelligence and problem-solving skills, often joking that he could fix any issue with a spreadsheet—a claim he lived up to often.

A fan of both Star Wars and Star Trek, Marty found pleasure in the simple joys of watching movies with his children, sharing with them his love for epic adventures and timeless stories.

Marty and Melissa's shared passion for exploring new culinary experiences was a cherished aspect of their relationship, a way to savor life's flavors together.

His interest in gaming and extensive knowledge of World War II were among the many facets of his vibrant personality, making him a wellspring of fascinating tales and insights.

Marty's light shone brightly in the lives of many, and his absence will be deeply felt. He is preceded in death by his parents and leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter to be cherished by his wife, Melissa Peralta; children, Olivia and Mason
