His early years were spent in various communities throughout Nebraska where his father served with the Evangelical Church which merged with the United Brethern Church and then with the United Methodist Church. These were the years America was in the depths of the Great Depression and from this environment a generation surfaced with values of patriotism, honest work ethic, recognition of spiritual values, family, thrift, appreciation and thankfulness, and most of all persistence, determination and hope for the future. Americans carried these values into World War II.

He was an assault medic on four beach landings, reacting under tremendous pressure to save his fellow soldiers lives. Early in 1945, Robert was selected for a special detachment to invade La Shima, a small island off Okinawa to seize its airfield. This was the island where Ernie Pyle, noted news correspondent, was killed on April 18, 1945

Roberts final combat was with the 2nd Marine Division at Okinawa prior to the atomic bombing of Japan. The kamikaze attacks were very active during their landing on Okinawa. Following military service he married Marjorie Dale Klima on September 8, 1946.

Marjorie and Bob moved from Denver to Tulsa in August 1962 when Bob joined North American Aviation to work on the Apollo Moon Landing Program. One month later in September, they celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary dancing. To this union two children were born, daughter Jeanne Collado of Santander Spain and son Dr. Randy Weber of Ponca City, Oklahoma, and now resides in Nichols Hills Oklahoma City Oklahoma.

Bob and Marjorie were like an extra set of grandparents to me! They were the most compassionate, caring and humble people. They loved Jesus so much, and served in the church for decades. When I was young, they would invite me over to spend an occasional Sunday afternoon at their house and we'd bake scones and play a game together. They cared so much about their children and grandchildren, showing me each picture on their fridge and telling me of all their adventures. I'm so thankful for all the memories I have with both of them. Bob is so greatly missed already, but happy knowing he's stepped into eternity with Jesus and is reunited with Marj again. Love, Melanie

I worked with Bob at Rockwell. He was a most delightful and caring person. Also a devout Christian. He would share his brunch with me each morning. He dearly loved his old car, named "Ole Blue" He sold it once and in accouple of days missing it so much, bought it back. Marjorie was a very caring person, I loved talking to her. He always said he would live to be 100. Looking forward to seeing both of them in Heaven. Always will remember Bob and Marjorie. Barbara Odom
