I am so sad to hear of Dennis' passing. He was my best buddy for many years. I love this picture of him here. He had a beautiful smile. He has and had that twinkle in his eyes. I used to tease him about that twinkle. He would laugh and turn red or think of something to tease me about. I miss my buddy, Dennis. He is with God and I will see him again someday soon. Betty

May the Lord hold you in his arms and keep you safe and warm. May you be as happy as you were the days we walked along river walk, holding hands and feeling the love that only you could give to me and I could give to you, See you soon, my love. Betty

I loved my Uncle Dennis very much and was so blessed to spend a lot of time with him over the last few years. He led an adventurous life and had many great stories that he shared with me, from jumping on a train as a young boy and riding to Kansas City and back, he said it was just something fun to do. He also did over one hundred skydiving jumps in his life, and loved doing it. He was a very interesting person and I love him still. The best thing about him was when he gave his heart to Jesus just a few months before he passed away. After that moment, he became very tender hearted and tears would roll down his cheeks when he would talk about that experience! I'm so grateful and happy we will be together in heaven with our loved ones in heaven one day soon!!!

I worked with Dennis in Broken Arrow Hospital and watched him save many lives in ER. He would never brag or even talk about that side of his life. I miss you so much. Betty
