Clyde E Jones

FEB 6, 1925 - SEP 27, 2024

Clyde Eugene Jones departed this life and entered eternal rest Friday, September 27, 2024 at 99 years of age leaving an incredible and profound legacy. Clyde was born February 6, 1925 to Ulva and Viola Cornett Jones in Springfield, Missouri. He married Nora Mae Watts on December 24, 1942 in Ozark, Missouri. He worked at Hastings (NE) Naval Ammunition Depot during WWII. He returned to Rogersville, Missouri, where he farmed and worked as a furniture finisher for Glenn White Furniture Factory in Springfield, MO. In July, 1956, he moved his family to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he worked at Watts and Green Glass Company until retirement. He enjoyed attending bluegrass festivals and was a promoter. He was a member of Eastwood Baptist Church since 1957. He was a handyman extraordinaire. He could fix anything! He enjoyed woodworking and was very creative. He could talk to anybody and greeted them with a warm smile, which always spoke volumes about his happiness to see you. Clyde took immense pleasure in family gatherings. His stories of accounts of his 99 years were captivating and unforgettable. He was predeceased by his parents, Ulva and Viola, Nora, his wife of 68 years, David Lee, son, James and Cecil Jones, brothers, May Harris and Marsella O'Connor, sisters and Leddi Peck, great granddaughter. He is survived by daughters, Peggy Pitezel, spouse Fred, Bonnie Carner, spouse Tommy, Anita Peck, son, Donald Jones, spouse Deborah, daughter-in-law Rebecca Jones, 15 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren, and 5 great-great grandchildren, sisters, Ivyonn Galloway and Leetta McCroskey, brother-in-law, Garrel O'Connor, sister-in-law, Doris Jones, and numerous nieces and nephews. Rev Gordon Small officiating Pallbearers Sean Pitezel, Jason Beeman, Justin Beeman, Jeremy Beeman, Christopher Jones, Cameron Jones, Casey Jones, Ricky Peck, Kyle Peck. The family respectfully requests memorial donations be made to Good Shepherd Hospice, 4343 S 118th E Ave, STE 160, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74146 You have left our lives, but you will never leave our hearts.

Kathy E Lane lit a candle in honor of Clyde.

My family (Don & Bobbie Day are my parents) owned the Starvy Creek Bluegrass Festival in Conway, Missouri for over 35 years. Clyde and Nora were there many of those years and became dear friends to our family. We just recently learned that Clyde had gone on to his eternal reward. My parents are in the mid to late 80s and wanted me to convey their condolences to Clyde's family. He was a wonderful person, and we will forever cherish our memories of him. Kathy Day Lane
