Virginia Fallini

MAR 25, 1931 - OCT 7, 2024

Virginia Fallini, beloved mother and cherished friend, passed away peacefully on October 7, 2024, in her hometown of Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 93.

Known as a loving and caring mother to everyone, she made each person feel loved and valued. A devoted Christian, she lived her faith daily, touching lives with her kindness and generosity. Her warm spirit and endearing nature drew friends and family alike to her for comfort, guidance and friendship.

Virginia had a passion for decorating her home. It was a sanctuary filled with angel figurines, flowers and ornate furnishings that created an inviting space filled with beauty, warmth and love and reflected her deep faith and unwavering love for the Lord.

Virginia is preceded in death by her husband Gilbert, daughter Phyllis, brothers Cecil, Nobel, Johnny, Mike and sister Nellie.

Virginia is survived by her daughter Alessandra and husband Joel, son Bruce and wife Tiina, grandchildren Ian, Eveliina and Steffen, great-grandchildren Jackson and Madox, brothers Albert, Tom, Alex, sisters Lupe and Phyllis and sister-in-law Janet along with numerous nieces, nephews, and loved ones.

Funeral services will be private as requested by the family.

Sandy Clark posted:

Virginia always greeted me with the most loving voice I've ever heard. She had me overnight, took me to church and to see the Prayer Tower. There will never be a kinder person.
