Charles Brown Teel Jr.

JAN 25, 1943 - OCT 24, 2024

Charles Brown Teel, Jr., born on January 25, 1943, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, was the beloved son of Charles B. and Maurine Berry Teel. He was raised alongside his sister, Judi Hatfield, on the family ranch in Sapulpa, Oklahoma, where he cultivated a deep love for nature and family.

Charles attended Southeastern State University, where he met the love of his life, Betty Stoddard. They married on May 27, 1966, and together built a beautiful life, welcoming two cherished daughters, Suzanne in 1970 and Danielle in 1976.

Charles was an inspiring art teacher early in his career before finding his true calling as a school guidance counselor, where he helped countless students discover their passions and purpose. Known for his love of painting, traveling, and time spent gardening, and at the lake, Charles lived life with creativity and kindness. A devoted member of The Park Church of Christ, he exemplified faith and compassion.

Charles is preceded in death by his parents, Charles B. and Maurine Teel. He leaves behind his loving wife, Betty; his daughters, Suzanne Teel and Danielle Balentine with her husband, Jeff Balentine; his adored grandchildren, Chelsea Crews, Zachary Crews, Ellie Balentine, and Warren Balentine; and one great-grandchild, Landyn Crews. Charles will be remembered with love and deeply missed by all who knew him.

Charles and Betty were our first neighbors and friends in our old neighborhood. Charles was an amazing man! Our love of art always brought about good conversation! He was an avid gardener and kept his flower beds immaculate! Their backyard was filled with beautiful trees that provided an oasis where he and Betty spent much of their time. Our family loved Charles and he will be missed deeply! We have donated a tree to honor his memory. ❤️
