Tammy Denise Cheatwood-Stewart

OCT 30, 1960 - OCT 29, 2024

Tammy Cheatwood Stewart, born on October 30, 1960, in Wichita, Kansas, passed away on October 29, 2024, at St. Francis Hospital in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

She is survived by her sister, Teri Brunson and her husband Bob; her brother, Randy Cheatwood and his wife Joy; her niece, Sarah Faith Lewis and her husband Nate; her nephews, Lucas Cheatwood and his wife Courtney, and Chase Cheatwood and his wife Amanda. Tammy was also a beloved great-aunt to Noah, Dean, Benjamin, Jensen and Lincoln. She was predeceased by her brother, Rick Cheatwood, and her parents, Fred and Sue Cheatwood.

Tammy was a proud member of the Broken Arrow High School Class of 1979. In her youth, she enjoyed playing softball and soccer. She had a special fondness for Tweety Bird, amassing a vast collection of memorabilia. Tammy dedicated 20 years of her life as a caregiver to her parents, who both lived to the age of 85. She also cherished her time living in Orange Beach, Alabama, particularly the Pirates Cove area and marina where her brother worked for several years. Tammy had a special love for her outdoor cat, "Baby."

The family extends heartfelt thanks to Tammy's classmates who provided care and brought joy to her in her final days.

Services will be under the direction of Floral Haven Funeral Home. A closed casket visitation will be held on Tuesday November 5, 2024 from 4-7PM at Floral Haven Funeral Home, with a celebration of Life funeral service to follow on Wednesday November 6, 2024 at 10:00 AM at Sequoyah Creek Church 2800 S. 1st PL Broken Arrow, OK.

Renee' La Viness (Tina Carter) lit a candle in honor of Tammy.

Tammy was my first friend in Broken Arrow, way back in 1969, when I was just 7 years old. I was new to the neighborhood, and she seemed to know everything, so I was following her lead. We rode bikes all over the neighborhood, and spent a lot of time together. She made me feel like I belonged. After her mom died, I told her to call if she ever needed to talk, and she did. I always enjoyed her late phone calls, and I'd stop by if I was in town on an afternoon, or after I checked my mail at the post office, because I knew she'd be out enjoying the night air a lot of the time. I sure will miss our visits! (Lighting a Tweety-Bird yellow candle for Tammy.)
