Jon "Paul" Sandmeyer

JUL 24, 1964 - OCT 28, 2024

With deeply profound sadness, we announce the passing of Jon Paul Sandmeyer, fondly known to all as “Paul.” Born in Houston, Texas, on July 24, 1964, Paul departed this life from his residence in Fort Smith, Arkansas, on October 28, 2024, to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Paul’s vibrant, free-spirited nature and deep love for life left a lasting impression on all who knew him.

Paul spent his childhood in Houston, Texas, and later moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he thrived as an athlete, excelling in soccer with a talent so recognized he was invited to meet the legendary Pelé. He also enjoyed baseball, scouting, and playing the guitar, a talent that blossomed into a love of singing and songwriting. In the '90s, Paul opened for country music star Bryan White and for rock band Confederate Railroad. He also loved performing at weddings venues.

Despite a strong desire to become a forest ranger, Paul chose to serve his country. He enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserves during his senior year at Memorial High School in Tulsa, graduating with honors in both rifle and handgun expertise at Camp Pendleton. Upon returning home, he furthered his service by enlisting in the Air Force, where he dedicated two more years.

Paul adored his three children — Ryan Paul, Summer DeNae, and Seth Cameron — and cherished his close bond with each of them. His laughter, wisdom, and love will be treasured by all who knew him. He was also a proud grandfather to Riley Elizabeth and Cameron William Browning.

Paul’s love for God, his family, and his country defined him. Known for his warm, open nature, he truly never met a stranger. Paul faced life’s challenges with unwavering resilience and a strong faith, which he nourished through daily scripture reading. Although he endured many struggles, his spirit remained hopeful, as he greeted each day as a fresh opportunity to start over.

Paul’s earthly journey ended as he joined his eternal heavenly home, leaving those he loved with the comfort that he is now free from pain and suffering, soaring high above. He will truly be

A great memory I have of Paul was a road trip my brothers and I took with him to Colorado. It was a rather long trip. At one point, I believe Paul was getting a little antsy. As we were driving along, Paul all of a sudden spoke out in a rather-elevated tone and said; "stop the car!" "Stop the car right now," well, of course all of us were wondering what the heck, and asked why. He said, " I have to get out and climb that mountain RIGHT now!" "I want to climb that mountain now!" We all thought that was funny and I cannot remember to this day if we actually stopped to let him fulfill his request. Paul was a bright light. Never met a person he didn't immediately befriend. He genuinely cared about people. I'm honored to say that I was his friend. Paul, I hope you're climbing that mountain now. Rest in peace my friend. Mark Cameron

Paul has been a friend since I was 14. I'm 62 now. His enthusiasm and his zest for life was contagious. We had some great times together. My 2 brothers, Paul and I went on a "brothers" trip to Colorado and we had a blast. Paul was the life of the party. Paul was loyal, funny, insightful and most of all, a good friend. I'll miss you brother.

Sorry to hear about Paul's passing. We hung out a little bit in high school but then lost touch a couple of years after graduating. I will always remember him trying to teach me how to box, his laugh, and a wild encounter with a hitchhiker we picked up one New Year's Eve. Hope he had a great life. Chris Holleyman
