Ashton, and Stacy and family, My heartfelt sympathy to you all with this terrible news of Lori's passing. Lori and I met at a grief class seven years ago and became friends. We went out to lunch then and have been getting together every month or two since. She loved to try new places, and we hit many of them in Tulsa. She may say "Let's go to Roka", or "Can you meet at Queenies for early dinner?" We would then discuss our happenings since our last visit. She was naturally good-natured, kind, thoughtful, beautiful, and unpretentious. An absolute joy to know. I wasn't concerned at first when she didn't answer my last text, as I thought she may have gone to Texas as she did sometimes around the holidays. But then it seemed too long and unlike her. I thought I would try to call Stacy to see if she was there. I then realized I didn't know her married name, so thought I'd look on Dillon's obituary for family names. I was shocked and devastated to see Lori's pop up! I didn't know of any other friends to ask. I have been thinking of nothing else since. I know you all are heartbroken. Ashton, she thought the world of you and was looking forward to spending more time with you. I also am shocked, devastated, and completely in the dark. Can someone please talk to me and tell me what happened? Arsie Burkhart 918 398-1158

I recruited Lori to be my neighbor for very selfish purposes when she came to look at houses in our neighborhood. I convinced her to pick the one right next door to me! I knew then, the first night I met her she was going to be the best neighbor a person could ask for. She was loved by everyone in our neighborhood. Always a smile, laugh and even a tad of sarcasm when you talked to her. She would help anyone who needed it. Ashton and family I pray for peace for you all at this difficult time. I hope you can find comfort in her memories! She will be missed.
