Gavin Poppy

APR 8, 2016 - NOV 23, 2024

Gavin Poppy was born on April 8, 2016 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Courtney and William Poppy. He had a unique and innovative mind. He drew pages and murals of characters in elaborate scenes, often from his favorite video games like Minecraft. Gavin loved to build towers and contraptions, most often using blocks and other stackables, but once using a pool noodle to direct water from the bathroom sink into a bucket before the age of 4. Whenever he had the chance, Gavin would get into the pool, even if he had all of his clothes on. He befriended animals easily, whether it was toads, his best friend Turbo Pup-Pup, or the backyard chickens he invited inside to become house chickens. His favorite color was red, and ate cheese pizza and Oreos more than any other food. Believer by Imagine Dragons stayed his favorite song since he first heard it, and Spider-Man was his hero. He passed on from this life November 23, 2024, at the age of 8, with his parents, Courtney and William, next to him. Gavin left behind his siblings, Rylee Nikole, Caleb Anthony, Christian “Riskan” Daniel, and Levi; his grandparents, Penny and Tony “Crappa” Poppy, Becky “Momo” Johnson and Gary Smith; and his aunts and uncles Kristin “Aunt Chicken” Dial, Amy Poppy, Steven Poppy, and Taylor Hammons, who loved him as every child deserves to be loved. He is dearly missed and remains forever in our hearts.

Gavin was so sweet and wanted to draw you into his world when the attention was given to it. He would always want to show of for me on his swung in the living room, or tell me to click like and subscribe as he was an avid youtuber. Lol. My favorite memory though was when I came over over and he said, Fishy, it is So Amazing to See you!! Love that sweet precious boy
