We are so very sorry for your loss of your beautiful daughter. I unfortunately did not know Mary Beth on a personal basis, but I do know she was beautiful inside and out from how proud her parents are of her. I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Mary Beth not just as a colleague but as a friend. Her dedication, kindness and positive spirit made a lasting impression on our team at The SPOT for Kids. Many people have told me that she was an inspiration to them. She made an impact on us at the SPOT as well as the kids she treated. We will continue to remember her as we continue to work together honoring her compassion. I am thankful that I got to know her, even if it was just a short time. Rest in peace friend.
