I can't believe tomorrow marks a year since you have passed. I miss you a lot and I can't believe it has been this long without you. I wish we could go back to when we would do no work and just laugh in 5th hour or when you would try to act like you were mad at me that day and I just bothered you until you started laughing. I miss you a lot Maddie.

Maddie I miss you so much. I remember all the time on the bus I would ask to sit by you and you would always say yes. At school you were happy all the time and never doubted anyone but would speak your mind when you had to. I miss running around the neighborhood with you while singing songs and ding dong ditching. Miss you every day Maddie love you! ❤️

I remember when you used to come over at my house and we would make a pillow fort on top of the washing machine and we would listen to Lost Boys by Ruth B in 2020 and watch cringe YouTube videos and play Roblox. I'm so glad my cousin introduced me to you even if we stopped talking back in 2022 you're still my childhood best friend. I wish I could tell you all of this in person but I can't.

I never knew Maddy, but I always thought she was pretty and incredibly nice. I'd seen her in the halls and on picture day, though I've never spoken to her. But I do wish I had.
