Stephanie Lee Brown

OCT 1, 1961 - JAN 25, 2025

Stephanie Lee Brown, 63, of Spring, Texas, passed away on January 25, 2025. She was born on October 1, 1961, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Charles and Oteka (West) Mayfield.

On April 10, 1993, Stephanie married the love of her life, Stephen Brown, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Together, they built a life centered on faith, love, and unwavering dedication to their family. Their greatest joy was their daughter, Sarah, for whom Stephanie was a devoted mother and primary caregiver. As a stay-at-home mother and homemaker, she made countless sacrifices to ensure Stephen could provide for the family, always putting the needs of her loved ones before her own.

Stephanie found immense joy in spending time with her family, attending church, and sharing in the rare but treasured occasions of dining out together. She had a warm and giving spirit, always ready to extend kindness to others. An avid reader, she cherished the quiet moments spent with a good book.

Beyond her family, Stephanie's greatest passion was her ministry for special needs children. She dedicated herself wholeheartedly to this mission, serving with a major local church ministry, where she meticulously planned and prepared Bible lessons for her students. Her patience, compassion, and deep love for these children left an indelible mark on their lives. Even after the ministry closed following the COVID-19 pandemic, her impact endured—contributing to the church's decision to hire its first-ever special needs pastor, a testament to the lasting influence of her dedication.

Stephanie is survived by her loving husband, Stephen Brown; her beloved daughter, Sarah Brown; her brothers, Charles and Austin Mayfield, and her half-sister Cindy Brown. She also leaves behind a host of cherished friends and extended family. She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Oteka Mayfield.

My thoughts go to crowded overnight stays at the Weeks house, noontime laughter in the lunchroom at Will Rogers, Sunday afternoon rest home visitation, powerful summer youth camps, Friday night football games at Skelly Stadium, first jobs, first apartments, and first cars. Overwhelmingly, my memory of Stephanie is her deep, deep love for Jesus. When Stephanie "decided to follow Jesus," she sank her fingers into him and hung on as if the rest of her life depended on His constant and abiding presence. She had a remarkable revelation of being "fearfully and wonderfully made" that affected all of us who knew her. So many years and miles have passed between us, but her life testimony still affects me even as I write. I so enjoy the sweet memories of ours and so many other friendships from years past. I'm very thankful for the hope Stephanie's life and passing represent; "Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow, blessings all mine and ten thousand besides!" Stephanie knew where her hope came from and was assured that He would always be faithful! Today, right now, she is healthy, strong, and entirely unburdened by the cares of this life. She is a beautiful crown that Wanda Weeks will cast at Jesus' feet. I can see her running toward heaven with outstretched arms, that beautiful long, straight, thick red hair falling down her back, and that inviting toothy smile calling out as she arrived, "I've dreamed of this day my whole life!" I am confident that Jesus met her there that same way and, through his own laughter and tears, called back to her, "I have, too, Stephanie. I have too!"

Stephanie is my niece. She loved the lord and her family. Steve was the light of her eye. Stephanie came to visit us twice a year. Stephanie loved to bake for her friends. She would make apple spice bread and cookies for her friends and family. She would bake for a week and deliver to her family and friends the next week. When Stephanie baked, she used every pot and pan. I went behind her and cleaned dishes. Stephanie said Aunt Carol, "I will do them in a little bit!" After baking was over for the night, I could hardly put one foot in front of the other. We baked all day for a week. Stephanie will be missed. We love you Doug and Carol ❤️

Stephanie and I met 48 years ago at a Valentine's Day Banquet at Trinity Assembly of God Church, in Tulsa, OK. We became great friends and loved spending time together whenever we could. We enjoyed taking short trips, shopping, eating Mexican Food at our favorite restaurant, discovering new coffee shops, worshipping together in church, and sharing stories about our lives as we followed Jesus. She was a prayer warrior! The person I usually called first when I needed someone to pray about something. Steph was a Giver. And when she gave, whether it was her time, a tangible present, something she baked, an encouraging word, or prayer, she gave 100%! That's just how God made her to be. She loved BIG! Her family, her friends, and even acquaintances. I cannot say I have one favorite memory of Stephanie...I have many memories, however, and am grateful for the gift of her friendship for all of these years. I miss her. But I do not grieve as one without hope. Because I know Stephanie is now healed and whole, worshipping at the feet of Jesus, and I will see her again!
