Cynthia Gail Stocker

AUG 21, 1953 - FEB 12, 2025

Cynthia Gail Stocker August 21, 1953 – February 12, 2025

Cynthia “Cindy” Gail Stocker, 71, passed away on February 12, 2025. She was born on August 21, 1953, and was a beloved mother, sister, aunt, and friend. Cindy lived a life filled with love, adventure, and an infectious spirit that touched everyone she met.

As a young woman, Cindy’s adventurous nature shone through in her many stories, including the time she stole her parents’ car to drive back to Virginia to see her best friend after her family had moved to Oklahoma. This daring and spirited act was just one example of Cindy’s bold personality, always seeking joy and connection with those she loved.

Cindy was an avid lover of music, dancing, and travel. She spent many happy hours attending live concerts, dancing to her favorite songs, and exploring new places. Whether it was her love for Hideaway Pizza or sharing laughter with her family, Cindy’s presence was always vibrant and filled with energy.

She is survived by her son, Richard Stocker; sister, Wendy David; nephews, Robby and Matt David; and niece, Lauren Lawson. Cindy’s memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew her, forever cherished by her family and friends.

In lieu of a funeral service, the family encourages you to honor Cindy’s life by sharing your fond memories and celebrating her free-spirited, joyful nature.

In Loving Memory of Cindy I will always cherish the moments spent with Cindy—singing, dancing, and sharing so much joy. Her laughter was contagious, her spirit was radiant, and she had a way of making every moment feel special. Whether it was a favorite song or a spontaneous dance, she embraced life with a warmth and kindness that touched everyone around her. Though she is no longer with us, her light remains in our hearts. I am grateful for the time we shared, and I will always remember her with a smile. Rest in peace, dear Cindy. You will be deeply missed, but your joy will never be forgotten. Love, Nurse Jennifer
