Isabel Najera Adame

AUG 3, 1963 - APR 14, 2025

Born August 31, 1963, in Puebla Mexico. She passed away in her home on April 14, 2025 in Tulsa Oklahoma.

She lived a life of generosity, with a sense of adventure and gratitude

Isabel will be remembered as an understanding, generous and nature loving women. Her life experiences allowed her to always make space at the table for anyone. No matter, gender, color, religion, or life beliefs. She always had an open heart for anyone in need. She was a woman ahead of her time. Full of wisdom, acceptance for others, and wavering kindness. She chose to live her life with meaning regardless of the hardships she endured.

Positiveness was ingrained at her core, there was never an issue that could not be solved in her eyes.

She loved to spend her time out in nature any chance she got. Later in her life she rendered her time to her plants, crocheting, cross stitching, knitting, and making rugs for her pets Jay and Ashla.

Isabel leaves behind three beloved children; Elizabeth, Alejandro, and Rosi. Also four beautiful grandchildren; Danae, Camila, Santiago, and Emiliano.

Isabel's legacy will continue to touch hearts by honoring her values of kindness and generosity to everyone around.
