Surinder Kaur Malhi

JAN 4, 1947 - APR 15, 2025

Surinder Kaur Malhi, 78, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on April 15, 2025. Born in India on January 4, 1947, she lived a life full of warmth, generosity, and love.

Surinder will be remembered as a compassionate and nurturing woman who made everyone feel at home in her presence. She had a deep love for cooking, and her husband, Vasdev Singh Malhi, insisted on only enjoying her home-cooked meals. She believed that food was a way to bring people together, and if you entered her home, you would be offered a meal—whether you were hungry or not.

Her kindness extended beyond her immediate family. Although she did not have a daughter of her own, she embraced all the young girls in her community, treating them as her own and offering guidance, support, and love. She had a joyful spirit, and her positive energy uplifted everyone around her, including her coworkers, who admired and cherished her presence.

Surinder leaves behind her beloved son, Sukhvinderpal Sign Malhi, and his wife, Kulvinder Kaur Malhi; her treasured grandchildren, Prabh Malhi, Aman Malhi, and Simran Kaur Malhi; as well as a host of family members, friends, and community members who will forever miss her warmth, generosity, and unwavering kindness.

She is now reunited with her loving husband, Vasdev Singh Malhi, finding peace in eternity.

Surinder's legacy will live on in the hearts of all those she touched with her love and kindness. Her family and friends will carry forward the values she held dear, honoring her memory with every act of kindness and generosity.

May she rest in peace.
