Nesvold, Kevin

APR 13, 1961 - MAY 18, 2025

Born on April 13, 1961, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Kevin Charles Nesvold passed away peacefully on May 18, 2025, at Sequoya Point Living, with his sister, Margaret Nicole, by his side.

Kevin was a remarkable individual whose spirit and determination left a permanent mark on all who knew him. His athletic prowess was matched only by his sharp wit and infectious sense of humor and sheer orneriness.

In his early twenties, Kevin was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis—a formidable challenge he met with unwavering courage and determination. Though the disease-imposed limitations on various aspects of his life, it never diminished his vibrant spirit or his ability to bring joy to those around him. Kevin's enduring strength and resilience served as a beacon of inspiration to all who had the privilege of knowing him. He turned in this broken earthly body for a brand new one where he can soar free of pain and disease.

Kevin was a devoted and loving son, brother, uncle, and friend. He is preceded in death by His Grand Parent, Artie Peacore Nesvold, Harold Nesvold, Mary Cleo Jones, Lloyd Jones, his sister, Mary Kathleen Bryant (1989); his mother, Mary Margaret Nesvold (2015); his nephew, Hunter Odell Nesvold (2015); and his father, James Odell Nesvold (2020). He is survived by his brother, Keenan Odell Nesvold and wife Kristi; his sister, Margaret Nesvold and Solomon Adair; nieces and nephews, Whitney Nesvold Jackson, Josh Lane, Alley Harney, Maxwell Adair-Nesvold, and his great-nieces and nephews: Olivia Lane, Harper Jackson, and Theodore Jackson. And many cousins across Oklahoma and the US.

Kevin's legacy is one of perseverance, laughter, and love. He touched the lives of many with his warmth and charisma, leaving behind cherished memories that will forever live in the hearts of his family and friends.

Kevin was always polite to me. He had a big heart and was so athletic. I wondered for years about Kevin until Keenan posted about sending birthday cards. Which I had known more and asked about him years ago. I would have liked to have visited him and chat. God gained an Angel and one day soon maybe we can reminisce. Love you Kevin!❤️🏈🙏
