Thompson, John Robert

APR 2, 1947 - MAY 24, 2025

John "Bob" Robert Thompson passed away peacefully on May 24, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 78.

Born on April 2, 1947, in Beaumont, Texas, Bob was the beloved son of Tommie and Iris Thompson and brother to the late Tommy Ray Thompson. Bob proudly served his country in the United States Air Force before earning his MBA from Lamar University in his hometown of Beaumont.

A man of many interests, Bob loved traveling the world, collecting antiques, enjoying a well-made cocktail, and, above all, sharing laughter with those he loved. His friends often became family, and his warmth, wit, and generosity left a lasting impression on all who knew him.

He is lovingly remembered by his daughters Ashley Baquet and Blair Lemon, and their husbands Peter Baquet and Bradley Lemon. Bob was a devoted grandfather to Jude Baquet, Julien Baquet, Jasmine Lemon, Jay Lemon, Jack Lemon, and Julian Lemon. His legacy lives on in each of them.

A celebration of Bob's life will be held on Tuesday, June 10, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. at Floral Haven Funeral Home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, with a reception to follow. "My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived and let me watch him do it." His life was his lesson-and a beautiful one at that.

It is bittersweet how some people come into your story for several chapters, but leave such an impression that you can't help but mark their place. Even though they didn't stay until the final page of your journey, their chapters still matter so much. You find yourself returning to those dog-eared pages, rereading the moments you shared, all the time with Ashley and Peter, and Blair and Bradley, and all the grandkids and with your parents and mine, with all the friends we shared, smiling at the memories that still feel so vivid....Your pages, Bob are permanently folded down, not as a reminder of what we didn't finish, but as a celebration of what was. Because our chapters, however brief, remain as some of my favorites in the entire book of my life. Love you, Bob always and forever. I believe that we'll meet up together again in heaven. Lord willing, maybe we'll even play a few hands of gin. I'm looking forward!

I'll never forget the first time I met Bob. Ashley and I had just become friends and I went to her house to get ready to go out. Bob greeted me then proceeded to ask me a million questions. I was like I'm not taking your daughter date we are just going to hangout. And of course we stayed out past curfew and as we were sneaking back in we were caught. He looked at us told us to get to bed and he would deal with us in the morning. We ended being grounded (didn't know someone other than my own parents could ground me)and then handed us a list of chores to be completed! I was blessed to know and love Bob throughout my high school, college, newly wed and as I became a mother! I was working for Bob when I got pregnant and he was so excited to share the news at work! I'll always remember his love for life and all the Friday nights at Bobs. To know Bob was to love him!
