Mitchell, Ryan Lee

APR 28, 1992 - MAY 26, 2025

Ryan Lee Mitchell was born on April 28, 1992, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Angela Morgan and Kenneth Mitchell. He was the eldest brother to Armani and Malik and also considered a brother/cousin to Paris and Janelle. Ryan was fortunate to grow up in a close-knit family.

He was multi-talented, excelling in football and participating in the Junior ROTC Marine Corps. Ryan had a strong passion for serving the community through his work in security. Additionally, he had a deep love for music, which helped him establish connections in the business world.

From an early age, Ryan learned the importance of community service and was actively involved in various social and charitable activities. He was well-known for his uplifting words and encouragement towards others.

Ryan graduated from Douglas County High School in Georgia and went on to attend business school, where he earned an associate degree in Business Office Administration. Ryan truly was a jack of all trades. His most recent career was as a commercial truck driver.

Throughout his life, Ryan made a significant impact on many people. He had three children: his oldest child, Lyric, with Somer; Dallas, his middle son; and Ayven, his youngest son, with Aziza. Ryan's faith was strong and continually growing; he believed that God is greater than anyone.

Ryan was preceded in death by his grandmother, Joyce; his brothers, Malik and Joshua; his grandfather, Johnny Mitchell; and his cousin, baby Darian, and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

The memories of Ryan are cherished by his great aunts and uncles: Edna (Lawrence) Stokes, Vernon (Rose) Morgan, Patricia (Troy) Herron, and Francis Ware, and Twima. His close aunts, Denise, Shaun, and Kesha; His sister, Armani Morgan; his nephew and niece, Mason and
