Highfill, Dwayne Lee

JUN 8, 1964 - JUN 18, 2025

Mr. Dwayne Highfill, 61, passed away on Wednesday, June 18, 2025 in Bedford, Texas. Born to Bill and Inola Highfill on June 8, 1964, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He lived with his parents spending lots of time outdoors, playing football, succeeding in martial arts, moving on to driving a cool Mustang and developing a love for classic cars from the 1920's. His passion in life always centered around those closest to him ... his family parents, cousins and their Cherokee heritage ... and later his friends and wife his best (girl) friend and the love of his life. Together his world expanded to his mother-in-law and his extended family.

Dwayne leaves his loved ones: his wife Kathy, their grown children Josh and Vicky Mills with grandchildren Kaylee and Morgan. Caleb and Allison Mills with grandchildren Carson, Cam, and Caden. So many fun times and great memories! Dwayne is and will continue to be missed.

Funeral services will be held Thursday June 26, 2025 at 10:00am.

Dwayne, my sister Darla and I were very close growing up. He was very active and always ready to play, ride bikes, or go on exploring adventures! Dwayne was kind. He and his parents, Uncle Dub and Aunt Inola always welcomed us into their home and shared great quality time with us. They had a tandem bicycle that Darla and I rode on during many of our outings. They always threw the best 4th of July celebrations! I love and miss Dwayne!
