Rita Richard, 92, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away on August 23, 2025. She was born on November 30, 1932, in Lynn, Massachusetts, to Romeo and Eva Gamache.

Rita grew up in Derry, New Hampshire and graduated from Pinkerton Academy with the Class of 1950. On June 30, 1951, she married Gerard Dionne in Derry, New Hampshire, and together they began building a life full of love, family, and shared memories. Strong and independent, Rita was a woman who embraced life with joy and adventure. She enjoyed traveling to visit her children and grandchildren whether they be in Europe, Florida, Texas, or Maine. She made lifelong memories and friendships. Known for her vibrant social spirit, she cherished playing cards, board games, and connecting with those around her. Aunt Rita (cousin really) was the first one to come to our house after my Dad died very suddenly. Mom opened the door and Rita wrapped her arms around her offering love and support. Then she hugged my Sister and me (I was 10 and Sis was 5).She and Gerry stayed close to us with Gerry coming to the house with his tool box to fix anything that might "need fixing".She was warm, loving, a good friend and had the most infectious laugh. I will miss and will always be grateful she was such a wonderful part of our lives.Love you!Joanne

Mark Popeye posted:

Watching hurricane coverage on her TV,when my wife and I visited her. Every time Jim Cantore did his report (from Ft Myers), we would see my pickup truck (parked at the hotel he was reporting from), in the background. I would laugh and say, " We're about to see our truck get blown away,by the hurricane."
