Wanda Kay Rhodes

JAN 10, 1948 - NOV 29, 2025

Wanda Kay Hardin Rhodes was born January 10, 1948 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to George Hurshall Hardin and Julia Marguerite Bloyed Hardin.

She passed from this life Friday night November 29, 2025 at home in Bixby, Oklahoma. She was 77 years old.

Kay was reared and educated in Tulsa. She attended Lowell Elementary and Middle School, and graduated from Tulsa Central High School class of 1966.

Kay married James E. (Jim) Rhodes on February 27, 1971 in Tulsa. They lived briefly in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, then moved to Tulsa, then finally to Bixby.

She worked various jobs in Tulsa. For about ten years, Kay volunteered at the Garnett Church of Christ, then was on staff in the church office for about ten more years, handling many kinds of tasks.

She enjoyed researching the family trees of herself and Jim. She also enjoyed reading, crocheting, watching TV and volunteering at church.

Kay spent countless hours locating her classmates from Central High School, and helped organize their reunions and parties. Her great attention to detail played a big part in the success of those events.

Kay is survived by husband Jim of the home, and their son Kevin Rhodes of Sapulpa Oklahoma.

Kay was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Margaret Sue Garner and Geraldine Evans, and her daughter Kimberly Jo (Kim) Rhodes.

Me and my family knew the Hardins for as long as I can remember. Kay and her sister, Sue, as well as their mother Margarite(sp?) Babysat for my parents. So I have known Kay all of my life. She gave the best hugs. She would hold on and your stress would mel away. Her hugs were always just long enough. I'm sure going to miss you Kay.Sharon -Crawford-Horn
