Dennis Edward Millard

MAR 2, 1951 - JAN 3, 2026

Dennis Edward Millard, 74, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, passed away on Saturday, January 3, 2026, at St. Francis Hospital in Tulsa. Born on March 2, 1951, in Carthage, Missouri, Dennis was the son of Ralph and Nellie Millard, and from an early age he carried with him the values of hard work, humility, and kindness that shaped his entire life.

Dennis spent his early school years in a one-room schoolhouse, attending from first through fourth grade before continuing at Jasper Elementary and Jasper High School. His pursuit of education led him to Belleville Illinois College and later Wesleyan University, where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree.

Among Dennis's earliest and most distinguished achievements was the attainment of his private pilot's license, a milestone that reflected both discipline and ambition.

A dedicated professional, Dennis built a long and respected career with American Airlines, HP, and DXE. As a Manager of Disaster Recovery, he worked with colleagues across the globe, known for his steady leadership, deep expertise, and unwavering reliability.

During the Vietnam era, Dennis was drafted into the United States Army, serving honorably as Military Police. His service reflected the same sense of duty and integrity that defined his life.

Over the years, Dennis made homes in Carthage, Missouri; Belleville, Illinois; El Paso, Texas; and ultimately Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, where he lived for 41 years. No matter where he was, Dennis was the kind of person who showed up—ready to help, ready to support, ready to make someone's day a little easier.

He was known for his love of jokes, even if he rarely made it through one without laughing too hard to finish—or getting it just a little bit wrong. His laughter was contagious, and his good-natured humor brought joy to everyone around him.
