Ronald Wayne Edwards

OCT 18, 1955 - JAN 14, 2026

Ronald Wayne Edwards October 18, 1955 - January 14, 2026

Ronald Wayne Edwards was born in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, on October 18th, 1955, to Roscoe Conklin Edwards and Lela Lila Minne Vann. He was the second of four siblings.

Ronald attended College High School in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and East High School in Denver, Colorado. He later attended Claremore Junior College.

Ronald had a lifelong love for music. He played the guitar and, as a teenager in Bartlesville, was a member of a band called Ronnie and the Uniques, which performed for live audiences. While living in Denver, one of his first jobs was operating stage lighting for concerts featuring famous entertainers and bands. In recent years, he managed the website Oleskool Legends, which was dedicated to old school music.

In grade school, Ronald won awards in basketball, baseball, and archery. Family was extremely important to him, and he was known for remembering everyone's birthday. He had a wonderful sense of humor and greatly enjoyed entertaining his grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

Ronald was preceded in death by his parents; his maternal grandparents, Zebulon and Minnie Vann; his paternal grandparents, Lincoln and Plymouth Edwards; his baby brother, Keith Edwards; and his eldest daughter, Andrea West.

He is survived by his beautiful wife, Cheryl Ann Edwards; his daughters Angela West (Colorado), Chantell Addison, Ashli Richard (Marquis), and Kayonna Addison; and his son Ronald Keith Edwards, all of Tulsa. He is also survived by his brother Lovell Webb Jr. (Joan); his sister Gwendolyn Shinault (Art); and his grandchildren: Twins Jade and Jared Sneed, Brittany West, Brianna West, Ariana West, I'mari Ross, Mikael Ross, Jaiden (Addison)Richard, Dorian Richard,

I have many memories of Ronnie.Me and Ronnie went to school together, as we were in the same class. I also played saxophone with him in our band Ronnie and The Uniques. We had a lot of fun growing up together. We played sports; and was always the youngest on the teams. What I noticed and loved about Ronnie was that he was always kind, loving and generous. As time moved on we both moved away from Oklahoma. However we could always find out what was going on with one another through his Brother Lovell. Ronnie will indefinitely be missed. But like Ronnie, I too believe the Bible's promise of seeing my Friend and Brother in the "New World"! John 11:23-26Karl & Mary (Belinda) Goree
