David Michael Armour

APR 12, 1949 - FEB 1, 2026

David Michael Armour, a true Southern gentleman and devoted family man, passed away peacefully on February 1, 2026, at the age of 76, in his home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, with his beloved wife by his side.

Born on April 12, 1949, in Fayetteville, North Carolina, Michael was the son of Frank and Janie Armour. From an early age, Michael carried himself with kindness, humility, and a steady sense of humor that would become his trademark throughout life.

Michael was a proud graduate of East Carolina University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in gas plant accounting. His career took him from Houston to Muskogee and ultimately to Tulsa, where he spent many years working for Carrera Gas before retiring in 2012.

No matter where work took him, Michael's heart was always with his family. On May 25, 2002, in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, Michael married the love of his life, Jan Armour. Together they built a beautiful life centered on faith, laughter, and family.

Michael was a devoted Christian who lived his faith daily serving as a Stephen Minister, leading Walk to Emmaus, participating in Dale Carnegie leadership, and speaking at divorce adjustment and widowers' workshops. He also found great joy in leading small groups and Sunday school, always eager to encourage and uplift others.

Michael loved the simple joys of life: reading, traveling, ice cream (especially knowing where to find it), and time spent at the lake or the beach. He was a loyal fan of the ECU Pirates and OSU cowboys and never missed a chance to support his grandchildren at their activities.

He was always joking, always smiling, and always ready with a quick laugh. Michael was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Janie Armour. As well as his sister, Sandra Joyner, and his brother, Richard Crouch.

Amber Cleary posted:

Mike AKA Dad brought so much joy into my young life from 3 to 12 years old and into my adult life. His bedtime stories were epic performances, summers were filled with lake & camping but who can forget grilling of delish hotest of hot, hot links with a satisfying cold Coke to go with it, and the pantry was always stocked with Oreos and goldfish. I'll always remember the laughter, the silly faces, and the lessons in the ocean of how to ride the waves. His Wicked Witch of the West laugh was the best! These memories, and so many more, will keep his spirit alive in my heart. "Would you still love me if I looked like this ☐"....of course. XOXO
