Dallas Edward Rawlins

SEP 22, 2005 - MAR 15, 2026

Dallas Rawlins, born on September 22, 2005, to Ed and Tiffany Rawlins in Tulsa, Oklahoma, was a bright and kind young man who cherished his family. He attended Jenks Schools and found joy in gaming, as well as outdoor activities like fishing, camping, four-wheeling, and riding his motorcycle. He is preceded in death by his mother, Tiffany Sanders, older brother, Stuart Spencer, and grandparents, Doyle and Royce Newby. Dallas is survived by his father, Ed Rawlins; brothers, Jackson Spencer and Garrett Rawlins; sisters, Alicia Perkins and Amanda Rawlins; grandparents, Lee and JoAnn Poe; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews. He is also remembered fondly by his girlfriend, Genesis Wilson.

I can only imagine
What it will be like
When I walk by Your side
I can only imagine
What my eyes would see
When Your face is before me
Surrounded by Your glory
What will my heart feel?

Dear Edward Rawlins and family, My husband and I arrived at the scene of your son's accident moments after it happened, and we stayed with him until the first responders arrived. We want you to know that Dallas did not appear to be in pain. Our hearts are broken for you, and we are so deeply sorry for your loss. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Dan and Tricia

Dallas made me smile every day. Thinking about our past, playing video games together late at night, just having conversations together. He has always been such a funny person

Me and Dallas took a trip to the river in Tahlequah. We drove my old jeep all the way up there. We had a great day. We laughed, we shared memories, we smiled all day. While we were driving back home my jeep started acting up and we barely made it back to the house. It was a great day with my brother.
