“ Dear Jack and all the children. Our memories of Annette are of one fine, energetic sister in Christ. Her love was shown in many ways. Though it has been quite some time since we saw any of you, we love you and pray God will fill you. Oh, what a blessing Jack has had to have such a wife for 62 years (and yes, you were a blessing to her). And how privileged to all her children to have such a mother. Wish we could be close.
