“ I am so sorry that I can not be there at the service. Bernice is my moms double cousin and I know that they shared many special times together growing up. I always thought that she and mom looked like sisters! I remember her voice and how sweet it was. I think she and mom are probably giggling in heaven right now!

“ I met Bernice several years ago as a member of Trinity UMC. She was a beautiful lady and always had a smile and kind words. We will miss her. -Deleise Conner
