July 5, 1928 - September 17, 2011

Burnett Dean Siegfried born July 5th, 1928 went to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on September 17th, 2011. He was preceded in death by parents Henry and Louise Siegfried. Survived by wife Joy, son Kerry and his wife Sandy, daughters Teresa Lynch and her husband Mike, Vicky Nigro and her husband Lou, Julie Roberts and her husband Ed, and Lisa Roberts and her husband Mark; 11 grandchildren, 13 great grand children, and 3 future great grand children. Also survived by his brother Edward and sister Virginia Wynn and her husband Jack. He was a native Tulsan and after service in the army during the Korean War, he joined his father, Henry, in the family business, Siegfried Motor Company. Subsequently, he started Save-On Auto parts, a successful auto parts chain in the West Tulsa area. After selling his auto parts business, he retired and dedicated his time to his church, Christ the Redeemer Lutheran Church, as the business manager. This was a joyous time in giving back to his Lord and Savior and the church he loved and where he was a charter member. The children in the Christ the Redeemer's Early Childhood Program thought that he lived in the ceiling because they often saw him replacing ceiling tiles. He was a loving and caring husband to his soul mate Joy for 47 years. Burnett was also a loving dad, papaw, and great papaw to his children, grand children, and great grandchildren, with 3 great grand children on the way, one of which will carry on his beloved name. His hobbies included gardening, crossword puzzles and he was a big fan of Wheel of Fortune and Fox News. He loved all family gatherings and especially enjoyed Christmas when all of his family gathered. Burnett was a faithful and humble servant of the Lord his entire life. He loved Jesus and lived his life dedicated to the love Christ showed through his only begotten Son. He was blessed with the gift of service. Dad we will always love you and will always try to carry on with your faithfulness and the family values that you have taught us. In lieu of flowers, please donate in Burnett's name to Christ the Redeemer Lutheran Church Early Childhood Development a program he loved.

“ Burnett was a great gift to the church. I will never forget the day he asked me if I thought CTR could use a volunteer at the church. He phrased his request to serve humbly and willingly. Burnett had wisdom. He had some special phrases that summarized the reality of a service man, like, “Everything gets old and eventually everything needs to be repaired.” There was never a task that was too low for him. If he could not accomplish the task well he would call for help. No vendor ever took advantage of him. He had a quiet way of standing for what was right. He was a follower of Jesus and a student of His Word. He was a true churchmen, serving on boards and committees and also willing to get dirty doing what he could for God's Kingdom. “ Burnett you will be missed. If anyone had to describe Burnett in 7 words it would be: Selfless, humble, loving, kind, gentle, honest and faithful. I pray I learn to be more like each of these virtues. My prayers are with Joy and the rest of your family because I know without a doubt you are in a better place. Peace be with you, sweet friend.

“ There will never, ever be another wonderful Burnett. He was the best! He did so many wonderful things for CTR in his quiet, humble way. I worked with him in many different avenues at church and he always knew the best way to handle anything. He was a cherished "man of God". I will miss him very much. Sandy Moeller
