“ I have wonderful memories from when she and Ron were my youth leaders at Gilcrease Hills Baptist church. I also used to babysit for the boys. In fact, I would often spend weekends at their house. They were wonderful mentors and confidantes. I had many a late night conversation with Dini about God, boys, school, and all the perils of a young teenage girls life. Ron and Dini were such special people in my life that they were attendants in my wedding. I love the Coulsons so much and am praying for them as they go through this sad time
