

Debbie Johnson

May 15, 1962 - January 29, 2019

Deborah Jean Smith Johnson born May 15, 1962 in Indianapolis, IN. A child of Nickie and Wayne Smith, Debbie was the oldest of seven children. In 1978 Debbie married the love of her life Daniel Lee Johnson. Debbie had two dreams in life, To be a mother and to graduate from Rhema bible college. After moving to Oklahoma with life long friends Mark and Cell Agee, Debbie was able to complete both of those dreams in 1991 with the birth of her only child Joshua. In 2002 she was able to begin her second dream by enrolling at Rhema Bible College. At Rhema she was able to learn more of the God that she adored and had loved since she was a small child. While at Rhema Debbie met and was able to impact the lives of many. Always sensitive to the holy spirit, going out anywhere with her lead to her praying for someone. After graduation Debbie took up a mentor role for many who attended the school. Having study sessions and prayer meeting most nights and just being able to share Gods love to all those who entered her home. Debbie's legacy will forever be the love of God she showed and the lives that she touched. Service will be Saturday, February 9th at 2pm. Service will be held at Harvest Church 1814 S. Main Street Broken Arrow, OK. 74012.

Comments

“ Debbie, There are no words to express how much you meant to me. You should be love from the moment I met you, you were always there for me and always there our kiddos. I could talk to you about anything and everything, you always were there. You made me feel very loved. I will forever miss you, I know you are in a better place, living in no pain, with our lord and savior. I am so glad that I got to see your smiling face and say goodbye, even know I did not know it was my goodbye. I love you and miss you so much!Shaina

Shaina Agee - February 05, 2019 at 02:02 PM