“ My sympathies to her beloved family, Forrestine was such a delightful lady. I didn't know her well, but every encounter we had was lovely and upbeat.

“ I have many memories of my Aunt Forrestine from an early age, when cousins Becky, Joyce and Mark would come to visit with Uncle Tom--sometimes for days at a time. Forrestine was always vivacious and active, her hair perfect and no eyelash or eyebrow out of place. She was very careful about her appearance! She loved her children and her grandchildren, and would always engage with the rest of us to make sure we felt special. In the later years, she came to visit when Mark or someone was available to bring her. It was always nice to see her, and it was obvious--and you could tell--the spirit that was Forrestine was still there. Rest in Peace, Forrestine, we'll miss you!

“ Forrestine was such an amazing lady. She and Tom would have the whole sunday school class to their home for cookouts. Tom was always cooking steaks in the backyard. This was in the late 70's We would have so much fun at her home on those get togethers.

Another precious memory was when my brother got married and she had their reception there.

Thank you for all the wonderful memories. Tom and Forrestine were loved so much by everyone who knew them.
