“ Words are not able to express my heartfelt sympathy to all of the Jamieson family. Your mother and “granny*was a beacon of light and a fountain of joy to everyone who crossed her path. She was an inspiration to all who knew her. She was a dear friend, and confidante. She was a smart, funny, talented, creative, long suffering woman. She delighted in her grandchildren and family. She had an pep in her step and a passion for serving others. She was quick to volunteer her services with a joyful heart.
Frances will be long remembered and deeply missed. I am so sorry for you loss. May God hold you in His arms and carry you on His pinions forever.
