“ George, I'll never forget all the good times we had even tho it was never in person. Playing with you and emma on gta and you and I on the forest. I was always hoping to get to meet you and the girls. You always made me laugh and every time I watch Pulp Fiction I think of you and the time you asked me if I ever saw it and referenced it. You'll be watching over every single one of your family members and friends. Just remember what they call a quarter pounder with cheese in France, a royale with cheese, because of the metric system. Gonna miss ya George. -James

“ Georgie, You are such a great uncle to me and my brother. I'm beyond thankful that I have gotten to spend my whole life knowing you! You were always there for every thanksgiving and every Christmas dinners and almost every special occasion my family threw! Always laughing making jokes telling stories watching YouTube videos with us kidos and loving our family unconditionally all the time no mater the circumstance, this doesn't feel real me writing this. Mom has a video of me and you playing in our old house in downtown and it was my first birthday I believe and we have pictures of me holding Emma after we brought her home from the hospital.. When you first got your apartment we helped move you in and I remember all summer I'd hang out with you like every other day and just talk to you about God and ask for Guy advice and that's was moments that ill never forget... Words can't describe how much your family misses you but we will see you soon cause like your picture quote said this life we live is a just a meare hand breath, lord let me realize how fleeting this life is.. Everything you did for my family has impacted us in such a great way. We've had so many laughs with you it's insane!! I loved your laugh, and you gave the best hugs!! ...Our body is Gods vessel and I know your soul is in heaven right now, and that's all that really matters to me! Let God know that I'm going to praise him even when it hurts like hell and I'm going to praise him after he has already one! Thank you so much for everything you've done to benefit my family and the time you spent throughout your life to benefit mine and jesses! I love you Georgie!P.s. See you soon...! And when I do I will great you by saying ... WASSSSSUUUPPPP .. HahaAnd I'll try to make as many funny faces at grandma when she takes my picture every year at Christmas like you always tried to get us to do! - - sissy

“ So sorry to read of the tragic accident and loss of your George. At terribly sad times like this, those left behind need comfort and the Bible is the best place to find it. Jesus well knew the Bible statement:" Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all"[Ecclesiastes 9:11]. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen. The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29. Revelation 21:3,4 states that death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away. Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to bring about these wonderful changes. I hope as you read these texts in your Bible they will be of comfort to you. There is much Bible-based comfort to be found on the website jw.org sincerely dianne mullins

“ I'm sorry this may display sideways; I don't know how to edit it. I thought George's friends and family may enjoy seeing it. I didn't know him well but I knew him well enough to know he was a very sweet and caring man. I'm so very sad he's not on this earth any longer.

“ August 4, 2015 George, I never thought in a million years I'd be raising our girls without you. I know you're watching over them and even me, because even up until your last breathe you always did. You taught our girls compassion, strength, honesty, faithfulness, the importance of a relationship with God and how to live life to its fullest. And so many other things that are numerous to list. Thank you for being there for me even through the hard times and even after I know your heart was broken. You showed our girls a great example of forgiveness. If it takes all I have in me, I will never let them forget and I will never forget what a great father, husband, brother, uncle, friend, and Godly man you were. We miss your infectious laugh, your confusing jokes, your randomness. Our girls amaze me every day with their strength and will to keep going and laughing because that's what you would want and that's what you taught them. I miss my "co-parental", my friend. They miss their "Du-Dah" and "Boochiey". And we'll never stop. We love you. Your Girls mamma & Friend,
Dana

“ I have many wonderful memories of sitting in the fellowship hall at Forest Ridge Baptist with George and laughing at nothing in particular. He was a great guy, and we are so very sad that his life on this earth ended so early. Our prayers for the family.

“ You embodied all the fruits of the spirit. You were the most selfless and humble man I know. You made me a better person. I cannot say enough wonderful things about you. You were truly one of a kind. Everyone who knew you was blessed to have had the privilege. You were the best father EVER! Your girls love and adore you so much. My kids loved you as their own. And you taught them all how to be amazing people. Thank you for loving them and for loving me completely and unconditionally. I was so looking forward to forever with you. I'll just have to wait a little longer now. I love you most, I'll love you forever. My sweet man. #teamjorge 12/16/16

“ My favorite memory of George would be Christmas down on one knee proposing to Allison with 8 kids and 4 adults peeking through french doors so we wouldn't miss a moment of his joy. I love you George Landing and am truly sorry you are not going to be our son-in-law
