“ Words cannot begin to say how very much you will be missed. I remember our last conversation as we strolled through the Cemetery when we visited grandma and grandpa's graves. Who would have thought that would be our last time. Yesterday I went over some of the 100s of e-mails we shared back and forth. I had to laugh through the tears. Thanks you my dear for all the laughs through the years. Thank you for listening to many of my greatest fears. You have been such an important part of my life, the one someone I could talk to when life's burdens were too much. I love you and I am so grateful for you... my lifetime friend. ~DeeDee~
