“ I just found this sad news on my computer. I have many fond memories of Helen when we both lived in Sarasota. I would love to hear from any surviving family members.

“ We will miss Aunt Helen and listening to her tell the history of the family. We were very blessed to have been able to spend time with her twice this summer even if the trips here weren't as planned. We love all of you and are praying for your comfort. Love, Marc and Ann

“ The first time we met Helen, she endeared herself to us with her southern drawl and vast knowledge of the Scriptures. She has left a legacy for her daughter, son, grandchildren and great grandchildren. We wish to celebrate her life here on earth as she reaps her rewards in Heaven.

“ Ann and Bruce share in your loss, but rejoice that your Mother has met Jesus, face to face. She was like a mother to me, a great friend, and my prayer partner. We shared so many wonderful memories and she knew me from birth, always reminded me of how I fed Bruce, Cheerios at Friendship Baptist Church. I missed her so much when she moved to Tulsa, but she loved being near you Ann, and her grandchildren. Like you, I will miss her but she will never leave my memory, and I look forward to seeing her again at the calling of my name. May God ease your sorrow, and fill your heart with memories. With Love and Prayers, Cheryl
