“ Dearest Debby, Paul, Bettie and your wonderful family~~our hearts are aching as we understand so well your loss. Jack and Bettie were so kind to me; when I met Debby almost 30 years ago in New Mexico. Jack and Bettie were Godly people with such a sweet and kind spirit. They have been long time friends~ even though we didn't see each other but a few times over the years. Our last time was in Arkansas and I received such warm, and loving hospitality from them both. I am very sad to hear this news. Our prayers are for Bettie to have such peace from our Lord Jesus, knowing Jack is right at this moment with Jesus, enjoying his Glory~and yet, it will be very difficult and you all will miss him so much. May your heart feel God's supernatural love~it is possible, even through all the pain. What a big God we Worship. Love, Diane and Ben Miller

“ A tribute to a true friend. Jack & I were lifetime friends from boyhood Boy Scout activities to young adults choosing loving wives and starting enduring families. Distance, I in Arizona and Jack in Arkansas and Oklahoma, kept us physically apart in our older years. But friendship is more than physical presence: it is also thoughts and memories of innumerable joint activities of the past. These do not disappear but remain with me presently. I and my wife, Culleen, pray for God's comfort for Bettie and others who likewise suffer the loss of Jack's presence.
