September 19, 2014 - August 2, 2016

Jack Oliver Turner, beloved son, brother, grandson, great grandson, great-great grandson, nephew, cousin and friend, born Tuesday, September 19, 2014 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to his loving parents, Elizabeth & Alex Turner; went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, August 2, 2016 in Tulsa, Oklahoma with his loving family by his side. Jack or better known as “Jack Jack” or “Jack-O-Lantern” by his loving family; enjoyed many things for his brief time with us. He had a fondness for animals especially dogs. Jack was training the family collie, Maya, to fetch and would fearlessly approach and love any dog he could find. Jack loved watching the Avengers and pretending to be Captain America with his brothers and sisters. Jack also had a passion for sports and was a natural athlete, especially baseball. He enjoyed pretending to read, sitting with his sister as she read and trying to follow along. Even though Jack enjoyed many of these activities what he truly loved was his beloved family; especially his big sister, Samantha, who had been his ‘second mommy’ since that wonderful day he came home. Beautiful memories will always be cherished of Jack as he will be deeply missed by his family, friends and those who were blessed to have their lives touched by him. Jack is preceded in death by his loving great grandparents, Lena & Russell Turner and Kenneth Wells. Jack is survived by his beloved parents, Elizabeth & Alex Turner; his dearly loved siblings, Adam Turner, Samantha Turner, Kathleen Turner, Liam Turner and Owen Turner; his dear grandparents, Leslie & Timothy Wells, Karla & Stephen Kimbrough, Kathleen & Robert Turner; his loving great grandparents, Helen & Richard Martin, Janell Buchholz, Virgie Jones Wells; his dearly loved great-great grandparent, Doris Roby and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and other loving family members and friends. “ We will miss him. We will all miss Jack so very very much. He touched everyone he ever met and will continue to affect people who will never get the chance to meet him. His mother and I have a hole in our hearts the size of his personality, and for anyone who ever met him, they know that is an unfathomably large hole. We will remember him every day as a perfect child. He brought joy and light to everyone. He comforted you when you were sad and laughed with you when you were happy. He adored his family and just wanted to play and smile and be with us. He would run to get Adam for dinner, sit by Liam and share toys, steal Katie's food when she wasn't looking, follow Samantha around and call her mommy, and take every chance he could to kiss Owen on the top of his head. He loved so strongly and was loved just as much. The impact he had on our lives on the short time he was alive will never truly be understood. He changed us all on a very deep level. So now we have to find a way to honor him and cherish his memory as we live out a life that should have included him. I lost my son. I will never get to see him grow up into the amazing man he was going to be. I may eventually be able to get through a day without crying, but I will never go a day without hurting that my baby is gone. I can only take some peace in knowing that he lived a wonderful life for the short time he was with us. And he knew that he was loved beyond measure. Elizabeth and I would sing a song to our children to put them to sleep. One verse in particular hits me hard right now. "Goodnight, my angel Now it's time to sleep And still so many things I want to say Remember all the songs you sang for me When we went sailing on an emerald bay And like a boat out on the ocean I'm rocking you to sleep The water's dark and deep inside this ancient heart You'll always be a part of me" I love you, Jack. Daddy loves you so very much

“ My condolences to the Turner family. As a young person it's hard to understand to see young ones depart. But I'm convinced that there's a promise that we're going to see our loved ones again. In John 5:28,29 it states " Do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I hope this gives you some kind of comfort. With deepest respect Liliana
