“ To those who wrote and contributed to this disgusting tribute - shame on you.

First, how dare you have the audacity to use my mother's name in his obituary. Disgusting - you clearly did not know him nor the volumes of damage he caused.

Second, despite the wrong Nicole written of, I am the surviving child. My brother died over 12 years ago, but my dad would have know that had he been once ounce of a proper parent.

He was thoroughly flawed, had no sense of responsibility failed his family and his obligations as a parent. Never once came to look for us. Never. He fled to OK after attacking my mother, while my brother and I watched. He never paid child support. I won't even write about his behavior late at night when he was drunk and what that turned into. Imagine the worse - at least YOU didn't live it.

EVEN IF THERE IS A GOD, God himself could not save this sick, sad human being from hell. I hope he revels in his decisions for all eternity.

You have NO IDEA WHO YOU ARE TALKING ABOUT. This is utter bullshit and I hope everyone reads every word and knows how fooled they were by this coward.

I hope he rots in hell for what damage he caused.

SHAME ON YOU!

“ I am sad to hear that John has passed but I know He is in a better place and I rejoice with him about that. He was a precious man I had the privilege of working with at Gatesway, as well as one of his nurses at the VA Outpatient Clinic. I remember him as a very giving and kind man and would do anything for anyone. He had a smile that was contagious and a witty sense of humor. He will be greatly missed.

“ John was first cousin to my sister, brother, and me. He was my Mom's only nephew, and she thought the world of him. When we all lived in California, John and I used to play, and he, being a few years older than I am, had all the good ideas. I can't remember a day when there wasn't a "Johnny." Rest in peace.

“ Or deepest condolence to the family. Please find the comforting words in John 5:28,29 " The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out." God's word assures us that billions who have died will live again.

“ I offer up deepest sympathy to Mr. John's family. I only knew John for a short time. But in that short time, I really cherish the moments we had together as brothers in Christ. John had a smile and such a bright personality that lit up the world and made your day. I will always cherish these moments and his hobbies he shared with me. May you rest in peace my friend!

“ I offer my deepest sympathy for the family and friends of John L. Richardson. He was a kind and sweet man who enjoyed giving a helping hand to a neighbor or someone in need. He was quiet most of the time until you got to know him. He could really talk about nuts bolts and screws. LOL. He was a jack of all trades and master of most. He will be missed. I'll see you on the other side. Your friend in Christ. Naomi “ Frontline soldier for Christ. The time I spent with John was very enjoyable. He was a true dedicated and decorated Vietnam soldier in the U.S. army. One highlight we shared is when he re-dedicated his life to our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. We spent many hours talking about his life, going to the grocery stores and watching westerns...his favorite pastime. John was so neat and orderly in everything he did. He began working on jigsaw puzzles and made frames for all 16 of them. I will miss my brother. II Tim. 4:7 says I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Until we meet again, Darryl..
