“ My Aunt Judy will be dearly missed! She was funny and beautiful, always dressing classy and fancy!! She loved her family and kept in touch by phone to the ones that lived afar. I loved our long conversations. Stories about my dad and grandma that only she could tell. I'll love and miss her forever! R.I.P. precious soul! Yvette

“ I joined this family at the young age of 20. I never realized it back then, but you had a big part in helping me become who I am today. Raising adult children isn't easy and I appreciate everything that you did for me and my children. You will be missed tremendously.

I love you mom,

Chrissy

“ Mom you are going to be so missed but you are leaving us with a legacy of Wisdom, Love and Affection. You were always there when we needed help and sometimes when we didn't even know we needed help!! You were by far the best cook I have ever encountered, from meals to desserts. No matter how many times I tried I couldn't ever come close to your finished products of all of your special recipes....and believe me I tried. You always had good advice and gave it caringly as to encourage and not discourage. You had unbelievable patience and was always willing to forgive. I was always impressed with your style and beauty...not just on the outside but the inside as well. You weren't always dealt a good hand in life , but you stuck with it and did the best you could which is all any of us can expect from a human being. You loved God with all your heart and prayed for positive outcomes. You will always be a huge part of my life and my family's and hopefully we will respectively carry on your legacy. From the moment I met you I felt accepted and loved for who I was.....Thank you for that!!

Now you are where you are whole again and with your loved ones in heaven as your heavenly Father promised.

I love you!!

“ I love you so much mom, more than you even ever knew. I'm so freaking sorry for ever getting mad at you or arguing with you. You're the best mother anyone could ask for and I never deserved you. I love you so much and can't wait to see you again in Heaven.I promise to try and always do what you would want me to do and I will honor your memory and think of you every day.I'm going to miss you so much. My life won't be the same without you.

Your loving son, Christopher
