“ We will sure miss seeing Karen at epic salon. Every time she came she was a light in the place. We will miss seeing her smile and just having a great time while she was there. We are sorry for your loss. We will sure say a prayer for the family. Laura Exum.

“ Karen was a wonderful, sweet lady. Her daughter, Kelli, was my first childhood friend when I moved to Oklahoma in 1981. I always thought Karen was so beautiful, inside & out. She was just a classy, lovely lady. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. My condolences to Karen's close friends and family.

Needless to say, my heart is absolutely broken at the loss of my one remaining sister. I will miss our telephone conversations and our reminiscing about things long ago when we were children. I loved her and will miss her more than I can express in words.
