Linda Curry (Whitlock), age 74, died Tuesday, August 4th, peacefully in her Broken Arrow home while surrounded by her family. Linda began her professional career as a bookkeeper and secretary for Mid Continent Leather Sales in 1970 and retired as its successful owner in 2008. Although strong and independent, Linda was most caring, compassionate and selfless. She was a student of the Bible. She taught children's Sunday school at Covenant Fellowship Bible Church for many years. She loved singing and was a member of Homeward Bound Quartet, ministering to countless retired and senior citizens. Linda and Sam attended Memorial Bible Church of Tulsa. Linda's infectious laugh and warm smile will be missed as well as her amazing cooking. Her love for family, and her Lord and Savior, Jesus, made her an even more beautiful and inspiring person. The peace and joy she exhibited during her two year battle with cancer left a deep and lasting impression on all who were near her. "... well done, Linda, My good and faithful servant". “ I first met Linda when we both attended Holy Family school in the ninth grade in 1955, we became the best of friends, I can remember singing in the glee club together, We remained good friends through the years and even though we didn't see each other very much we always sent each other Christmas cards every year until a few years ago but manage to have lunch together. I remember when she told me she was sick, thinking how good she sounded and we made plans to have lunch again when she was feeling better after her treatments. She said "whatever God has planned for me, I'm ready". I waited for her call and when it didn't come, I knew something was wrong, but my husband had recently had a really tough surgery so I put off calling her. Needless to say, I was stunned when I read your post on Facebook. I loved her very much and will always regret I didn't make that call myself. God bless all her family, I will be praying for you. Her friend always, Barbara Brannen Blair
