“ My very first memory of "Bo" was a visit to the house to invite Ken and I to Riverside. He was so kind and full of information about the church. I will miss his hugs and most of all his sparkling eyes.

“ I will never forget when as teenagers we were all shocked to find out Bo was not his real first name. He was not too happy with us calling him Mr. Louis and shut it down real quick. But, he always let me call him Louie.... He even told my daughters they were allowed to call him Louie too but, no one else. He was always so funny and had the brightest smile. We will see you in Heaven one day Louie!!! We love ya
