“ I will miss my mother and best friend greatly. My mother taught me about unconditional love with her life, its always merciful, forgiving, compassionate and still there even if you can't see it or touch it.

“ I have never seen a picture of sweet Marjory without that beautiful smile lighting up her beautiful face. Ever time I had the privilege of meeting her, she had that same beautiful, warm and inviting smile. She was truly an angel on earth and is now smiling down on us from Heaven. We will see her again one day soon. I cannot wait for that glorious reunion. Love you Marjory and Bill. Praying for her family as they await their glorious reunion with her.

“ Grandma I love you dearly you will be missed by your loved ones here still but we will meet again soon! My grandma was a VERY loving passionate kind Christian woman. I remember my grandma trying to teach me how to sew or at least I thought I was sewing on my kids sewing machine she had for me years ago. I'm glad I was able to have the memories I had with her. My brother Travis and I was able to go spend a whole week with her years ago and she always kept us busy playing in her back yard or sewing or McDonalds play land. I will forever keep you close to my heart and pass on to my babies the love you always had for family. I don't think there was one Christmas you forgot to send a card or birthday! I will cherish the quilt you made for my son Connor! I was your first grand daughter WOW I'm getting old lol LOVE SHERRY

“ I regret I did not get to see Aunt Marjory more. I do know that she seemed to be as sweet as my own mother. Great women have a certain spirit about them. Marjory was one of those. I can only imagine all her sweet Grandmother's stories. To be absent on earth is to be present with the Father Jesus. She is now cheering on all her family from Heaven to finish the good race, the good fight of Faith. I am so sorry for her family's loss. I pray peace to you that only God can provide. The peace that passes all understanding. One day we will all be together again. Love Mona Stehm Newcomb
