“ A life of kindness has passed, and we are all lessened by that. When my mother (Jim's sister) was seriously ill shortly after she was married, she and Jim ensured that we had a good meal. Perhaps that small act was forgotten by everyone else, but I remember. And I celebrate a good life, lived with dignity and with a quiet nobility that I shall keep in my thoughts.carl haywood

“ God saw her getting tired And confused and troubled beyond compare A cure was not to be. So He put His arms around her, And said, "Come unto Me" With tearful eyes you watched her, As she struggled day to day. Confused, troubled, and combative Still you loved her dearly. And would not make her stay. So many times you've cried Tears of sorrow and of joy If your love could have healed her, She would have never died. But God's love is the greatest and He knows beyond this world's life Is glory eternal for all, Who accept Jesus Christ.Your mom's hope and prayer for all who knew her Was for you all to join her in great joy and laughter One day at Heaven's gate.
