

Olga McKenzie

January 23, 1920 - July 17, 2010

Olga McKenzie died Saturday, July 17, 2010. She was born January 23, 1920 in Canada and moved to the United States when she was three years old. She spent her youth being very involved in church and playing sports. During WWII she played for a professional women's baseball team called the Buena Park Lynx. She later married the love of her life Carl O. McKenzie. The two were married for over 50 years until his death in 1997. Olga was a loving woman who dedicated her life to serving the Lord and sharing His love with others. She was an active member of Christian Women's Club and spoke at various functions. In addition to being a loving wife, she was a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She had a bright spirit and a beautiful heart. She always offered a helping hand and shared her joy with everyone she met. Olga will be truly missed by everyone that knew and loved her. Survived By: her daughter Diane Haspell and her grandchildren Jennifer Burton, Carl McKenzie, J.C. Haspell, and Calynn Haspell survive her. Also survived by two great-grandchildren Connor and Jaxon Burton. Preceded in death by her husband Carl O. McKenzie and her son David G. McKenzie.

Tribute Wall

KR

“ I was so sad to hear of Olga's passing, nearly a year ago. End of last year, too, my dad John passed, he always spoke so warmly and affectionately of Carl and Olga. I attended David's funeral and cemetery April 2002, does not seem so long ago, then the afternoon at Olga's lovely home with Warren and Clare, all with Christ now. Mom, Jerry Rohrig, was So pleased when I found this site, and will be forwarding on all my findings to Marie McKenzie Rohrig, who had said was not aware of many of the details of Olga's passing. Kevin Rohrig

---

Kevin Rohrig - July 07, 2011 at 07:09 PM

CC

“ Olga was, for several years, a faithful member of our Senior Adult Choir at FBCBA. She was a lady of class and grace. She always had an encouraging word, was an ardent student of the Word of God, a woman of prayer, humility and conviction, and a precious friend. We will miss our long talks and sharing our experiences. We loved her dearly.

---

Charles and Linda Collins - July 20, 2010 at 03:21 PM

GT

“ We knew Olga from First Baptist church and Silver Arrow retirement village. We enjoyed knowing her and her quiet humor. She was always neatly dressed and proper. Quite a lady.

---

Gene & Reva Jewell Tate - July 19, 2010 at 02:15 PM