“ When we think of the neighbors we have had, Terhune has been a prominent name in our lives. In the late 80s, we built a house across the street from Tim and his family. Both having a passion for golf, Tim and I played often on the same course his mom and dad were members. Playing with Ralph was always a privilege. Playing with Dorothy was a guaranteed loss for us. We moved to be closer to the course and found that we had only changed which Terhune was our neighbor across the street. It was always a privilege to share holidays and good times with the Terhune family. Ralph was an inspiration in how to live and love. He will be missed and treasured forever by our family. Our hearts will celebrate his departure. We pray for those he left behind and know we will be reunited with him in Heaven.
