“ As I drove to the service, all I could think was that Ray was like a second father to me, always helping me in any way he could and he ALWAYS had nothing but kind words for ANYONE who he came into contact with. Ironic that every person that talked about Ray said the EXACT same thing. He was a true MAN, and an amazing one at that; one that his wife and children can be VERY proud of. He will be GREATLY missed! God rest your soul Ray, and God be with your family through these tough times.
