“ Bob Worth was one-of-a-kind. Now don't ask me what that means. He was friends with all, prayed for you, laughed at you and with you – he loved to pick on my 'red Hair' and different colored nail polish. Of course, he told his beautiful bride that he didn't like her nails to be polished in pretty colors. He was our coffee maker at Sunday School, this was the only coffee that I drank during the year when I was at church. He liked to wait on people and be sure that each person was comfortable. I Loved Bob and his beautiful bride Zita – what a wonderful life they had with their beautiful BIG families. I just wanted a sister and use to fuss at my mom because she didn't bring me one. There is no doubt where he is today, in Heaven with his family who have already left this earth and waiting for the rest when God deems ready to take them. GOD BLESS ALL OF HIS FAMILY AND FRIENDS LEFT HERE ON EARTH.
